In addition to above, the SAI also operates specific schemes for promotion and development of traditional/indigenous games. Under the National Sports Talent Contest Scheme, SAI has adopted 27 schools, provides comprehensive support to the identified athletes, in terms of training and participations in competitions. SAI also operates Special Area Games Scheme, which are specifically aimed at promoting local sporting talent in tribal areas.

For the promotion and development of sports infrastructure in rural areas, the Government has recently launched a national programme titled Panchayat Yuva Krida Aur Khel Abhiyan (PYKKA), which aims at providing basic sports infrastructure in all villages and block panchayats in a phased manner over a period of 10 years and access to organized sports competitions at village and block panchayat level. The scheme lays special emphasis on promotion of traditional and indigenous games.
